Story Time vs. Screen Time:

Choosing Moments That Matter

In today's digital world, screens have become a natural part of children's lives. Technology can certainly support learning and creativity, but as teachers, we believe that children also need the timeless joy of books and stories.

Story time is much more than reading. It nurtures imagination, vocabulary, listening skills, creativity, and emotional understanding. A screen presents ready-made images, while a book encourages a child to create their own world. Through stories, children learn about kindness, courage, friendship, empathy, and resilience.

Dear Parents, we encourage you to create a simple 10–15 minutes reading routine at home. Sit with your child, let them choose a story, ask questions, discuss the characters, and sometimes allow them to create their own ending. These small moments strengthen not only learning but also the beautiful bond between parents and children.

We do not need to eliminate screens; we simply need to create a healthy balance. Let technology be a tool for learning, while books, play, conversations, and family time remain an important part of childhood.

"A screen can show a child a world; a book teaches a child to imagine one."

Let us give our children not just information to consume, but stories to remember, imaginations to explore, and memories to cherish.

हिंदी–शब्दों से संस्कारों तक

"भाषा केवल संवाद का माध्यम नहीं, बल्कि हमारी सोच, संवेदना और संस्कारों की पहचान है।"

हिंदी हमारे लिए केवल एक भाषा नहीं, बल्कि भावनाओं की अभिव्यक्ति,संस्कृति की विरासत और आत्मीयता का सुंदर माध्यम है। इसके शब्दों में अपनापन है और इसकी सरलता में एक विशेष मिठास है।

एक हिंदी अध्यापिका के रूप में मेरा मानना है कि बच्चों को हिंदी केवल पढ़नी नहीं, बल्कि महसूस करनी, उसमें सोचना और अपनी कल्पनाओं को अभिव्यक्त करना सीखना चाहिए। कविता, कहानी, संवाद, अभिनय और रचनात्मक गतिविधियों के माध्यम से जब बच्चे हिंदी से जुड़ते हैं, तब भाषा उनके लिए एक विषय न रहकर जीवंत अनुभव बन जाती है।

आज के तकनीकी युग में हिंदी नए माध्यमों और नए रूपों के साथ निरंतर आगे बढ़ रही है। हमारी जिम्मेदारी है कि हम बच्चों में हिंदी के प्रति प्रेम, आत्मविश्वास और गौरव की भावना विकसित करें।

"हिंदी पढ़ें नहीं, हिंदी को जिएँ"

बोलें, सोचें, रचें और अभिव्यक्त करें।

हिंदी—हमारी भाषा, हमारी संवेदना, हमारी पहचान है।

Charlotte's Web:

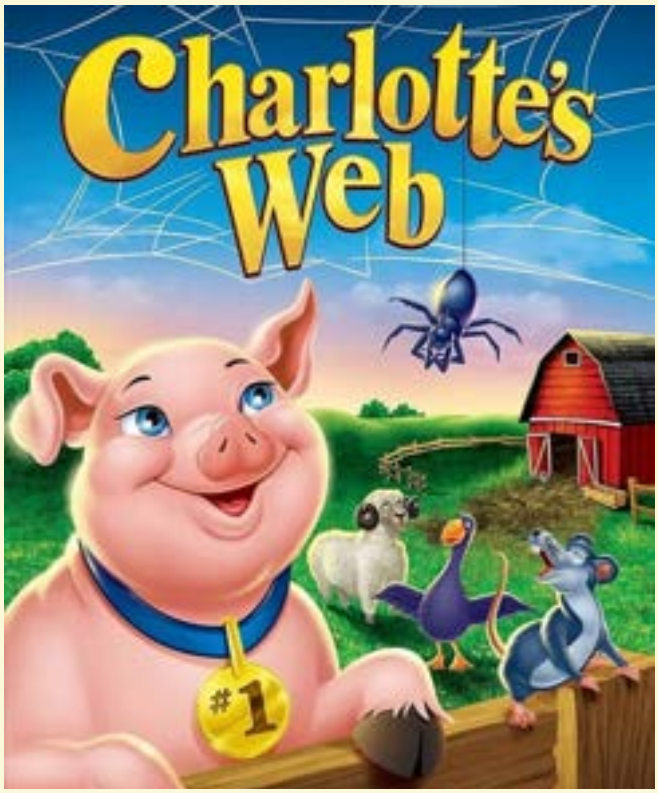

The animated 1973 film (or the 2006 live-action version) beautifully brings E.B. White's emotional farmyard tale to life.

E.B. White's heartwarming, emotional tale of farmyard friendship remains a beloved classic. Both the 1973 Hanna-Barbera musical and the 2006 live-action adaptation capture the tender story of a gentle spider's devotion to saving a runcible pig, exploring powerful themes of sacrifice and the cycle of life.

This charming, toe-tapping adaptation features original songs by the Sherman Brothers. The vocal cast is led by Debbie Reynolds as Charlotte and Henry Gibson as Wilbur.

2006 Live-Action Adaptation
Directed by Gary Winick, this version beautifully blends live-action performances—starring Dakota Fanning as Fern—with emotive CGI animals, voiced by Julia Roberts as Charlotte.
